

Reviews

Towns Women Thankyou Letter March 2010 - PDF 670k

Review 1 PDF (115KB) Click Here

Review 2 PDF (236KB) Click Here

Review 3 PDF (293KB) Click Here

Need Adobe Reader - Free Download

AN EVENING OF JOYCE GRENFELL 29th August 2008 Trisha Lewis performed an evening of Joyce Grenfell anecdotes and songs at the Barrington Theatre in Ferndown. The evening was attended by 200 people, who had a great evening. Trisha is an extremely talented actress and singer and we are very grateful to her for organising this evening for our Branch. "Theatre at its best" "Inspirational solo performance" "confident and beautiful acting" (Hampshire Chronicle) "utterly unforgettable" (Chester Chronicle) "Woman of many parts" (Bournemouth Echo)

"a truly pleasant experience" (Bournemouth Echo)

"a gifted cabaret artiste" (Echo) "inspired piece of writing and stagecraft" (Southampton Echo) "A tribute and a triumph" (Echo)

"enthralling" (Lancashire Evening Post) "an actress who equally well makes us laugh or cry" (Western Gazette) "a marvellous performance" (Swanage Regatta association) "You were perfect" "I would have no hesitation in taking up your offer to visit us again" (Wareham Middle School) "we were impressed by your range, versatility and high quality of entertainment and also the high standard of presentation" (A Scrimgeour & private party) "your visit was one of the highlights of the year" (Wareham Mid. School)

"a spellbinding performance" (Bath Chronicle) "you really set the mood" (National Association for Gifted Children) "You had them completely engrossed the whole time, thank you so much" (Nortoft Day Centre)

"Lewis holds a captive audience throughout" (Bordon Herald) "a unique experience" (LSU College of Higher Education)

"Trisha Lewis held the audience with every word and gesture" (Reading Chronicle) "Lewis tackles it with skill and panache" "Well worth a visit" (Blackmore Vale Magazine) "the play evokes a surreal sense of time" (Green meadows residential home)