

Marriage, Manners and Music

Contributed by Administrator
Friday, 15 August 2008
Last Updated Sunday, 25 July 2010

Marriage, Manners and Music Music mixed with some light-hearted relationship and parenting advice from the 1950's!!!!
Tongue in cheek - I think you would say! But memories will be evoked!

'Marriage, Manners and Music'- a light-hearted look at relationship advice as given out in the 1950's! Trisha uses her own unique style to bring together material from the era with live singing and archive music etc from the period - all combining to make up a memorable evenings entertainment - approx 1hr 45mins (plus interval). As always Trisha keeps the set and technical requirements simple in order to make it very 'versatile' for different venues. Enquiries and bookings now being taken.

Suitable for Village Halls. Trisha has vast experience of performing in village halls all over Hampshire and Dorset as well as 'up North'! She has toured through ARTSREACH and HOG THE LIMELIGHT.

Fee can be arranged on percentage of ticket sales (with minimum fixed fee).